partner selection and evaluation.

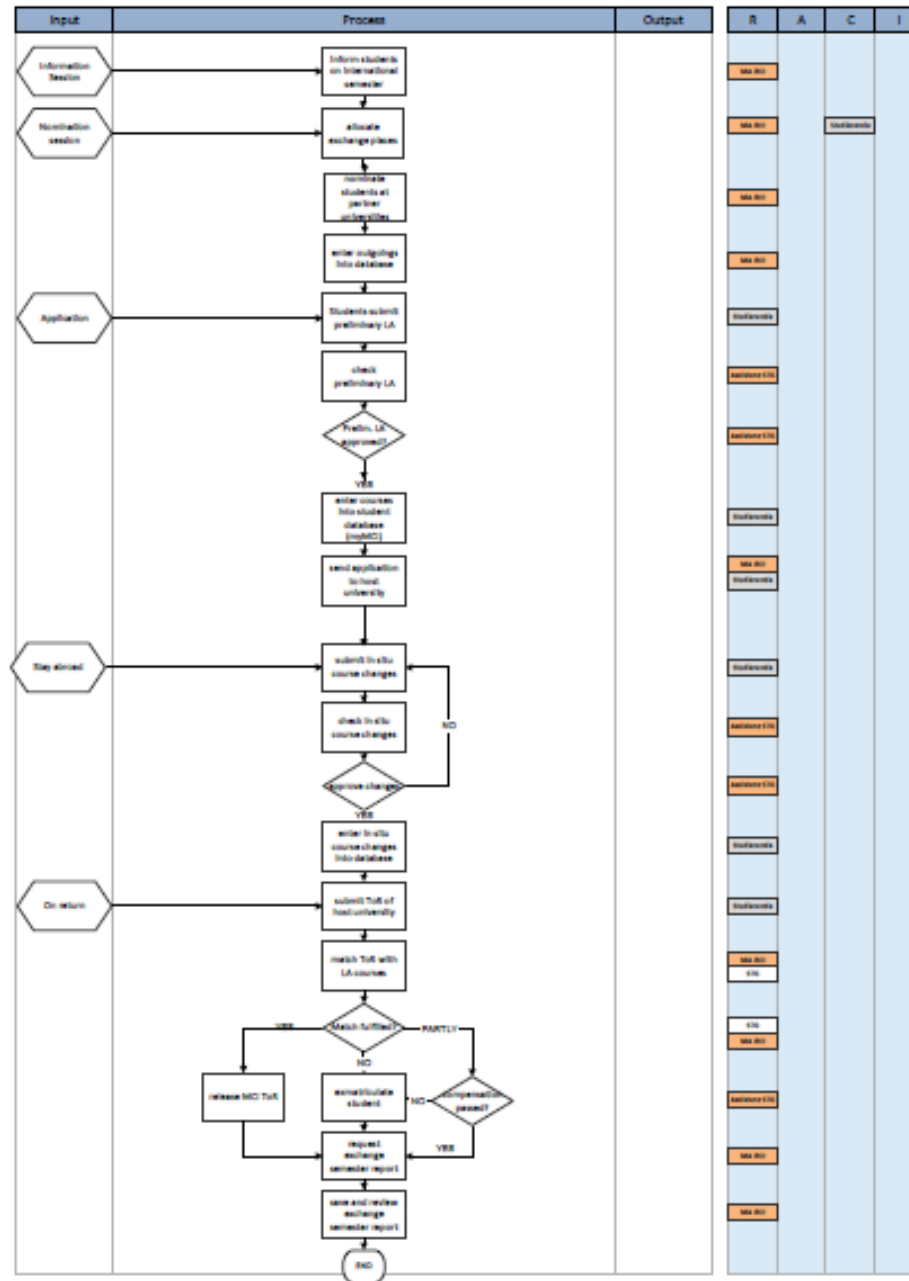

- Partner universities are initially and continuously evaluated with the study programs (courses, semester terms, location, language)
- Some possible partners are suggested by lecturers or our Rector.
- Partners are otherwise actively searched for at conferences such as NAFSA, APAIE or EAIE.
- More than 250 partners
(balance ensured through short programs)

forms of exchange.

- Most partners are exchange partners (in Europe Erasmus + , outside Europe bilateral agreements). This means exchange is offered on a tuition waiver basis.
- Some partners are study abroad partners, where our students may study on a tuition paying basis (for instance some partners in America, Australia)
- Free movers but not at partner universities.
- Double degrees are offered as well, mostly in the Master's studies. This means two semesters at home university and two semesters abroad.

testimonials.

It absolutely paid off to go on an exchange semester. I was able to get to know people from all over the world and I learned a lot about other cultures. I was really lucky and happy to live with Spaniards and so I was able to learn a lot about the Spanish culture and their traditions.

Do not, especially when you arrive, compare everything with Austria, or your home country. Mexicans are extremely proud of their country and with their friendly and welcoming attitude, they show you their country from a totally different angle. You will discover things that, with your European way of thinking, you could not have imagined before. VIVA MEXICO.

My biggest suggestion is DON'T BE AFRAID - JUST GO FOR IT & ENJOY IT AS MUCH AS YOU CAN.

It is going to be a wonderful time and trust me; you are going to learn a lot, in terms of academics as well as personal development.

The exchange semester was a great experience for me! I got to know people from all over the world, improved my French and had a lot of fun. If I have to pick one thing that influenced me most, I have to take the "Social Entrepreneurship"-class. It was a great class where we reflected about the (business) world and the things that are going on. It changed the way I am thinking and directed my thought about the purpose of life.

Yes it was a very good opportunity to get to know another culture and so many nice People. Things were a little bit less planned than at home and also the mentality of the People is different but very cool to see.

It definitely pays off to go on an exchange semester. I have the feeling that you're gonna grow up through this experiences. You'll meet new friends from all over the world and make friendships for life. You have the chance to live in an other country and you see how it is to live in a completely different cultural way. It is also very interesting to see how much especially in the USA and in Canada education is worth. For me it was so amazing to see those ambitious students who want to have good marks because they have the feeling they owe their parents. In Austria a lot of those things are just self-evident for the most people. And of course the most important fact is that you can improve your English really up to a high level which is also a fantastic opportunity.
