Let's talk...

Information Management System at Israeli universities:

- Is there any? More of them?
- What does it cover?
- Who is suppose to be in charge of implementation?
- Sufficient scope?

Think about your case

- Not everything is relevant
 - It is not just about programming
 - Critical approach
 - Avoid just „digitalizing“ analog processes & information overflow
 - 5 WHY & Golden Circle
- Inspiration
 - „Business“ analysis
 - Revision

5 Why

- Getting to the root cause
- Is it really The Issue? Is it necessary?

Website – a gate to EVERYTHING

CZS official website

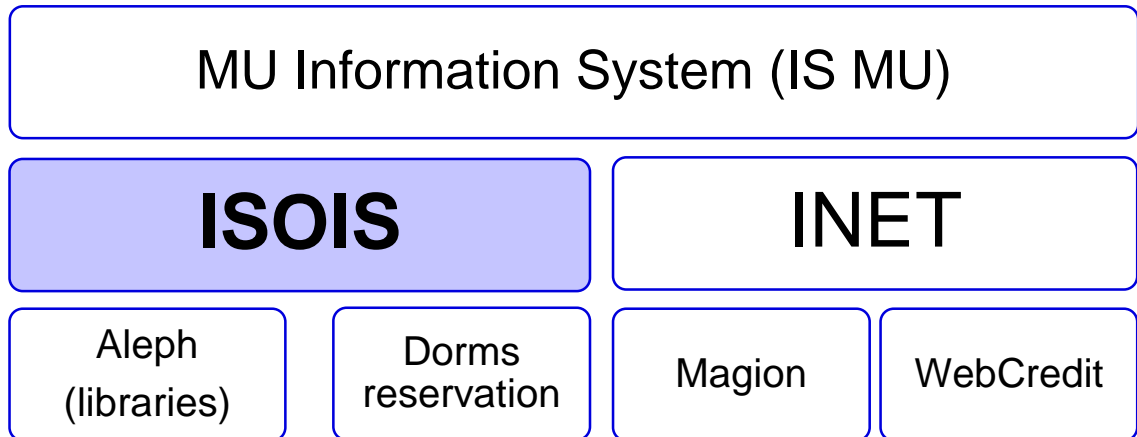

The screenshot shows the homepage of the Centre for International Cooperation (CZS) at Masaryk University. It features a navigation menu with categories like 'Student from Abroad', 'Staff from Abroad', 'MU Student', 'MU staff', 'Partners', 'About us', and 'Contact'. Below the menu, there are several columns of links for different study programs and services. A prominent section titled 'Exchange (Non-Degree) Studies' is visible, with a 'READ IT' button. At the bottom, there are buttons for 'Exchange Europe', 'Exchange ICM', 'Partner Universities', 'HSEP', 'CEEPUS', 'Freemove', 'CEP', 'TESOL', and 'CELTA course'.

dosveta.muni.cz

The screenshot shows the 'dosveta.muni.cz' website. At the top, there are navigation links: 'DO SVĚTA', 'PROČ?', 'JAK?', 'KAM?', 'VÍCE?', and 'REFERENCE'. The main heading is 'KAM MŮŽE JET?'. Below this, there are two dropdown menus for selecting 'Fakulta sportovních studií' and 'Jakékoliv úroveň studia'. A world map is displayed, with several countries highlighted in green. Below the map, there is a text prompt: 'S MU můžeš vyjet také na pracovní stáž, letní školu nebo výzkumný pobyt.'
